

Retiree Profile for Survivors and Estate

Important information for your loved ones

When a pensioner passes away, it is essential that the CN Pension and Benefits Administration be notified as soon as possible.

This ensures that pension payments are stopped promptly and that any benefits or amounts owing can be processed without delay.

Section A: For pensioners

Fill out the information in the table below:

Full name: _____

Date of birth: _____

Employee number (PIN) (if known): _____

Please give this one-page document to the person who will handle your affairs.

This information will help your surviving loved ones after your death.

Section B: For survivors and estate

What to do in the event of the pensioner's death

Please contact:

CN Pension and Benefits Administration
P.O. Box 8111
Montréal, Quebec H3C 3N3

Telephone:
1-800-361-0739

When contacting us, please provide the information listed in Section A above, including the date of death and the executor or survivor information.

This information helps us update our records quickly and support you through the administrative steps.

Why this matters

Prompt notification allows us to:

- ensure the retiree's file is updated promptly and accurately
- process pension and survivor benefits efficiently, when applicable
- minimize administrative delays for the survivors or the estate

Thank you

We understand that this is a difficult time. Our team is here to support you with compassion and clarity.
